INTRODUCTION

We are glad to welcome you to the Faculty of Basic and Biomedical Sciences at Paris Descartes University.

Our Faculty offers a complete range of multidisciplinary programs in biological sciences, chemistry and physics. All of our programs are oriented towards the health sector and they are all integrated with our world famous research laboratories in neurosciences, pharmacotoxicology and chemistry.

This orientation guide has been produced for students who are coming to study at our Faculty from outside France. It provides practical guidance on coming to live and study in Paris from an international student perspective and its intention is to complement other sources of guidance you are supposed to look for on your own.

When studying abroad, it is important that you develop your ability to find information and solutions by yourself. It is part of the experience.

Every effort has been made to ensure the accuracy of information in this guide at the time of going to print. However, this information is subject to change and the University accepts no responsibility for any errors or omissions. Students are advised to refer to the various web-links provided throughout the guide for the most up-to-date information.

Contact us if you have a query related to coming to live and study in Paris that has not been included.
BEFORE YOU ARRIVE

1 Immigration matters

1.1 Erasmus+ students

You were selected by your university to study abroad in our university through the Erasmus+ exchange program.

Your university has officially e-nominated you on the moveonnet platform, you received the email of confirmation and your stay in Paris was confirmed by both parties.

Make sure you sent your complete application to the international relation office administrative and pedagogic coordinators (international.biomed@parisdescartes.fr).

Make sure you follow the full procedure: https://www.univ-paris5.fr/INTERNATIONAL/Venir-a-Paris-Descartes/Etudiants-en-programmes-d-echanges/Erasmus

If you did, your host faculty will send you an email regarding the results; ie. your admission to Paris Descartes University. You will receive an admission certificate in June for the first semester starting September and an admission certificate in December for the second semester.

Upon arrival in September or in February, you will immediately need to proceed with the course and administrative enrollment (inscription pédagogique et administrative) at the host faculty first and then at the main campus of Paris Descartes University.

NB. Before you go back to your country, it’s imperative to report to the International Relations Office of your host faculty in order to close your mobility file with the following documents:

- the attendance certificate that should be signed by Paris Descartes University and handed to your original university,
- the end-of-stay certificate: it’s an internal document for Paris Descartes that collects information on your impressions,

The transcripts will be directly forwarded to your university by your host faculty where you took your exams.

1.2 Erasmus+ internships

For any information, contact:
bureau.stages@biomedicale.parisdescartes.fr
Faculty of Basic and Biomedical Sciences
45 rue des Saints Pères, 75006 Paris
Fourth floor, room 403
Tel: +33 1 42 86 43 28
1.3 BCI

Check the procedure on the BCI website http://echanges-etudiants.bci-qc.ca/?lang=en

1.4 Bilateral exchange programs

You were selected by your original university to study at our faculty and your admission was confirmed by both parties. Make sure you follow the procedure thoroughly: https://www.universite-paris5.fr/international/partir-en-programme-d-echanges/programmes-bilateraux-europe-international

1.5 International EU students (not on an exchange program)

If you are a citizen of a country belonging to the European Union, you will not need a visa to enter the country.

However, you will need to book your plane ticket depending on the date of the Kick-off meeting of the program that you are going to attend.

Note that you should contact the registrar’s office of your host faculty and of the main campus in order to proceed with the course and administrative enrollment (inscription pédagogique et administrative).

1.6 International non-EU students (not on an exchange program)

- Via Campus France

If you are a citizen of a country which belongs to the CEF list, make sure you follow the Campus France rules to obtain your visa.

For more information kindly refer to this link: http://www.campusfrance.org/en/page/cef-procedure-create-your-file

- Off Campus France

Non-EU citizens from countries that don’t belong to the CEF list have to apply for a student visa at the French Embassy or Consulate in their home country.

Please keep in mind that you can only apply for your visa once you receive your admission at the university.

The documents that are required for your visa application are found on the official website of the French Consulate or Embassy.
2 Cost of living and possible scholarships

2.1 Cost of living

Living in Paris can be expensive!

Tuition fees are around 400€ per year for undergraduate studies and 500 € per year for graduate studies including social security. Expenses for books and educational material are around 300 €. Rent and personal expenses might cost you around 1000 € per month.

NB. Make sure you have enough money to cover your whole stay in France.

2.2 CROUS Scholarship

You can only apply if you have been living in France for two years.

2.3 Eiffel scholarship

To receive the application, send an email to echanges.etudiants@parisdescartes.fr.

For more information:

- Paris Descartes University website: http://www.parisdescartes.fr/Actualite/Archives/Bourses-d-excellence-Eiffel-2015-2016 (check out the deadlines, they are different from the Campus France deadlines)
- Campus France website: http://www.campusfrance.org/en/EIFFel

NB. The deadline for application at Paris Descartes is usually around the very beginning of December. It is different from the deadline given on the Campus France website which you must not take into account.
3 Accommodation

3.1 Exchange students and students on a EIFFEL scholarship

Since housing in Paris is very difficult to find, we offer a limited amount of rooms (simple or double) at CROUS and Cité Internationale Universitaire de Paris (CIUP). You have a priority for these rooms, however you need to ask the central international relations office (echanges.etudiants@parisdescartes.fr) to reserve a room for you once you get accepted.

Your application for a student accommodation should be submitted online -> http://moodle.sorbonne-paris-cite.fr/?lang=en (click on login, create your account if you haven’t got one, go to relations internationales).

Paris Descartes University invites you to respect the conditions of the contract that you will sign once you have your application approved.

3.2 Regular International student

We recommend that you look for an accommodation before your arrival, as it can be really hard to find a good one in Paris. Most students pay between 400 and 600 € per month for accommodation.

We would like to warn you that the rents are high so unless you are lucky to get a room at the CIUP residence, you will most likely get a room for a high price.

The prices depend on the area, for example districts 5, 6, 16 and 8 are the most expensive ones. Yet you can find cheaper rents in districts 18, 19 and 20 or in the suburbs (cf map).

Paris Descartes University doesn’t provide housing, therefore you must look for an accommodation on your own because there is very little chance that the university can make an offer.

If you received your authorization of enrollment letter before May 31st, you can register for accommodation on this link: http://moodle.sorbonne-paris-cite.fr/?lang=en. However exchange students have a priority so you will be put on the waiting list and will be contacted only if there are some vacant rooms left.

Map:
- Location of the faculty on the map

You can get there using three metro lines:

- Saint Germain des Près station (line 4)
- Sèvres Babylone station (line 12)
- Mabillon station (line 10)
3.3  Looking for accommodation

3.3.1  Cité Universitaire (CIUP)

Located in the south of Paris, the Cité Universitaire has a number of different “houses” (Canadian House, Japanese House, German House, American House, etc.) where foreign students can apply to live. You can apply directly on this link: http://www.ciup.fr/.

NB. We recommend that you apply as soon as you receive your authorization of enrollment because their rooms are highly sought after. The cost of a room is usually between 450 and 600€.

3.3.2  Private owners and real estate agencies

You can find here a list of websites and places you can contact: http://www.biomedicale.parisdescartes.fr/IMG/pdf/Liste_Hebergements_Etudiants_Paris.pdf

WARNING: frauds are everywhere! If you rent an apartment before your arrival, never send money to the owner without an official contract.

Apartment agencies being quite expensive, we would recommend that you try and find on your own first.

WARNING: some dishonest agencies ask you to pay in exchange for a list of apartments. Never pay for a list, you only pay when you have chosen an apartment!

3.3.3  Shared housing

In some cases the best way is to share an apartment where you will have a bigger place at a lower price.

http://www.illicoloc.net
http://www.appartager.com
www.colocation.fr
www.centraledesparticuliers.com (PARTAGE section)

3.4  What you have to know when renting a place

3.4.1  Guarantor

In order to rent an apartment you are usually asked:

- To prove that you make four times the rent in a salary

OR
- Someone needs to be your guarantor. In most cases, they will require that your guarantor be living in France to ensure that the rent is going to be paid by the end of the month.

Legally, your guarantor can be anyone living anywhere as long as they provide the necessary documents (salary statements, proof of address, identity card, etc.).

However, landlords can choose whether or not to accept any given guarantor. Mainly they prefer someone in France in order to track them down in case of emergency.

In other cases some agencies tend to accept international guarantors.

Another alternative is to set up a frozen bank account as a security. Typically the account should contain 1 year of rent and remain frozen for the duration of the rental contract.

Nevertheless, it’s up to the landlord to approve the situation.

In case you cannot find a guarantor, it might help to show that your financial status allows you to pay the rent, although this will often be considered insufficient.

3.4.2 Insurance

Having house insurance is mandatory in France. Most landlords will require proof of insurance which is affordable (starting from 15 € per month).

You can look online “assurance habitation” and compare the prices between several insurances. Banks can also provide you with this type of insurance. When you open your bank account ask about their offers.

3.4.3 Deposits

Every landlord will ask you to pay a deposit. Usually the deposit is equivalent to one month’s rent. This money is given back to you at the end of your rental contract on the condition that the apartment is in a good situation.

When receiving the keys to your apartment, the landlord has to go through it with you and will note down its state on what we call an “état des lieux d’entrée”. You also need to take notes of every single detail.

These notes will be used at the end of your rental contract to determine what damages you have caused and what was originally there, so be extremely picky. Taking pictures of any existing damage can be helpful when checking out of the apartment.

3.4.4 Application

Most of the time, you will be asked to present the following documents while looking for housing:

- Three latest paychecks of your guarantor;
- Latest tax form of your guarantor (which includes a description of the value of his/her house);
- Copy of your guarantor’s passport / ID card;
- Copy of your passport / ID card;
Proof of enrollment in the school;
Make sure you come to Paris with all these documents and check with the landlord/agency that you don’t need anything else.

3.4.5 Financial help for housing

As a student in a public university, you have the right to ask for financial help for housing (called “APL”). It is awarded by the “Caisse des Affaires Familiales” (CAF). You can find more information in English on the following website: https://www.caf.fr/actualites/2016/aide-au-logement-etudiant#drapeau%20anglais

You can apply for CAF only when you arrive in France and when you get an accommodation with a legal contract.

You will need to open a French bank account to be registered. Please note that the first month of rent is not taken into account back and some people are not eligible for CAF.

4 Pre-arrival Checklist

4.1 Health

☑ Obtain a European Health Insurance Card or insurance that covers you during your trip and at least until you are registered in the French system
☑ If you receive on-going medical treatment and / or medication, obtain a letter from the doctor in your home country (in English or French if possible) with the details as it may be useful for your new doctor. Check whether you can take your medication on your flight and through customs.

4.2 Finances

☑ Consider how much money to bring to France (and whether your home country restricts the amount of cash that can be taken out of the country and how much you can bring into France) and / or whether to use Travelers Cheques. You should request money in 5€, 10€ and 20€ notes as 50€ notes and above may not be accepted for smaller payments.
☑ Ensure you have sufficient money in cash / credit card to cover your expenses until you open a bank account.
☑ Establish whether your current bankcard, if applicable, can be used in France and whether your bank can provide any advice about transferring money to France.

4.3 Transportation

☑ Plan your onward journey to Paris Descartes University.
☑ Consider baggage restrictions on your flight.
☑ Check any restrictions on goods that can be brought into France.
☑ Consider travel insurance.
4.4 Preparing to study

☐ Make sure you gathered all the documents needed for enrollment (diploma, transcripts, etc.)
☐ Consider bringing money for course material (around 300€ for one year)

4.5 Living in France

☐ Consider the Paris Climate: http://en.parisinfo.com/practical-paris/useful-info/climate

4.6 Immigration

☐ Check the details of your entry visa
☐ Ensure you enter France within the validity of your visa
☐ Make photocopies of your passport and visa
☐ Carry a print out of your admission letter in your hand-luggage as well as any other documents you used for your visa application

ARRIVAL IN PARIS

1 Passport control and immigration

Non-EU travelers have to pass through a passport and visa check. Please pay attention to the required documents that you should have upon arrival:
- Visa
- Admission letter from Paris Descartes
- Medical Insurance
- Proof of accommodation

2 Getting to Paris from the airport

At the airport you’ll find many options that lead you to Paris. Some of which are cheaper than others.

The links below provide you with detailed information about the different types of transportation and their costs from both Paris Charles de Gaulle and Paris Orly.
http://www.parisaeroport.fr/en/passengers/access/paris-charles-de-gaulle/find-my-route

You can buy tickets using machines near the gates of the train station. You will most likely need to take different trains to get to your destination. We advise you to ask for a free public transportation map at the booth.

3 Validation of your visa

Within the three months of your arrival in France, you must complete the OFII procedure in order to validate your stay in France. Otherwise your stay will be considered illegal.

Kindly follow the steps below in order to validate your visa:

1. Fill and send to the OFII the “demande d’attestation OFII” (a document that the embassy gave you before leaving your country), along with a copy of your passport, a copy of your visa and the stamp showing the date of your arrival in France.

If you don’t have the document you can download it from the following website: http://www.diplomatie.gouv.fr/en/coming-to-france/colonne-droite-7343/application-forms/article/ofii-application-form-in-french

You have two options:
• prepare the documents and bring them to the OFII stand at Cité Universitaire between mid-September and mid-November (17 Boulevard Jourdan, 75014 Paris; RER B “cite universitaire”) in order to take an appointment.

OR

• send the documents to the OFII by “lettre recommandée” (ask for a slip at the post office). There is a list of different OFII offices at the back page of the application form or on the OFII website online (choose the address according to where you live).

Note that you will get an appointment faster if you go to “cité universitaire”.

2- OFII will send you a “convocation letter” for a medical visit which you must attend with the following documents:

• Passport and visa
• Proof of enrollment at the University
• Proof of address
• Photo of identity
• A stamp of 58 Euros which you can get online https://www.timbresofii.fr/ or at a tobacconist’s shop

3- A proof of your medical examination will be given to you along with your residence permit that will be stamped on your passport. For more information: http://etudiantdeparis.fr/node/20 and http://www.ofii.fr/.

4 Visa renewal procedure

You should start with the visa renewal application three months before the expiration of your student visa. You will need to fill the original application in French that you will pick up from the main campus at Odeon:

1.3.4 Social security and complementary health insurance (called mutuelle in French)

The French health system includes mandatory basic health insurance (Social Security: Sécurité Sociale) and optional extra health insurance to supplement this. Affiliation to the Social Security is mandatory and you must report to the closest social security center to your place of residence. It entitles you to obtain the refunding of your medical care throughout your stay.

NB. Social Security hotline in English:

- 0 811 36 36 46 (from France) - Service 0.06 € / min + prix appel
- 0033 811 36 36 46 (from abroad)

Monday to Friday, from 8:30 a.m. to 5:30 p.m.

The “Mutuelle”, is a complementary health insurance which covers the 30% that are not refunded by the Social Security. It is strongly recommended that you subscribe to one. There are a lot to choose from and there are price comparison websites.

Find general information and the social security center you depend on: https://www.ameli.fr

Information for foreign students: https://www.ameli.fr/hauts-de-seine/assure/droits-demarches/europe-international/protection-sociale-france/vous-venez-etuuder-en-france
1.3.5 Payment of fees

Payment of tuition fees for foreign students: university tuitions are around 200 euros for Licence and 300 euros for Masters. In addition, and unless you are exempted, you will pay the CVEC (around 90 euros). This will allow you to obtain your student ID.

1.3.6 Civil liability insurance

It is a personal insurance which protects you in case you harm someone or cause any damage. It is mandatory for all students and must be brought as soon as possible to the registrars’ office. It can be obtained through SMEREP or LMDE, through your housing insurance or even through your bank. Students must present this document whenever they are going to do an internship in France.

Then click on “Sciences Fondamentales et Biomédicales”, enter your username and password in order to have access to all the information.

1.5 Calendar and grading system

1.5.1 Academic calendar, holidays and exams

There are two semesters during the academic year. The first one starts beginning of September and the second beginning of January. The Registrar’s office publishes the online course schedule with holiday periods before the beginning of each semester.

For more information you can check this website: http://www.biomedicale.parisdescartes.fr/Calendriers-2016-2017.html
1.5.2 Grading system and assessment

In French Universities, grades are awarded on a 20 point scale. The passing grade is 10/20.

Each semester, there are two sessions of exams for the 30 ECTS (European Credit Transfer System) you have to validate. Semesters are independent from one another but in total you have to validate 60 ECTS over the whole year.

You have to pick a certain number of UE (Unité d’Enseignement=courses) each semester and you get one grade for each UE. You are also attributed a French classification (cf below) based on your overall average for the first session exams only. But you will not get any classification if you have to take the second session exams.

To pass the semester at the first session OR the second session, you must have an overall average equal or higher than 10/20 with all grades above 7/20.

If you do not fit these conditions, here are the different cases you can face:

- Your overall average is lower than 10/20: you must attend the second session and take all exams for which your grade was lower than 10/20.
- Your overall average is equal or higher than 10/20 but you have one or several grade(s) lower than 7/20: you must attend the second session and take all exams for which your grade was lower than 10/20.

Nota Bene: all grades equal or above 10/20 obtained at the first session are kept for the second session average.

For your information:

1.5.3 Examination

For each exam, there are two sessions:
Semester 1: the first session is in January and the second session (catch-up session) is in June.
Semester 2: the first session is the last week of June and the second session (catch-up session) is in September.

NB. The registrar’s office publishes the exam dates at the beginning of the year on the faculty’s website. Note that you need to have your student’s ID on the day of any exam.

1.5.4 Cheating

In case of cheating or attempt to cheat during a test or an examination, the student(s) involved will obtain a grade of zero and will be called upon to appear before the disciplinary committee held by the University. Disciplinary measures which can go up to expulsion will be implemented (cf University rules).

The Faculty of Basic and Biomedical Sciences has recently created a LinkedIn page: Groupe Faculté des Sciences Fondamentales et Biomédicales. We encourage you to become a member of the LinkedIn group so you can benefit from many opportunities (jobs, conferences, internships, events, etc.). Besides once you graduate, you can keep in touch with students and teachers.

2.1 Opening of a French bank account

When opening a bank account the following documents are always required:
- passport / ID card,
- residence permit (if you are not from the EU),
- Proof of residence: telephone or utility bill in your name, a rent receipt or a declaration by the owner stating that you live there, in combination with the lease.

Sometimes you will be asked to provide:
- Proof of earnings or status: contract of employment, student card (or proof of enrollment),
- Financial status: the amount of money you have on other bank accounts,
- Birth certificate.

Banks differ in their services and products. They might have specific products for students, or for those of a specific age. It is therefore recommended to compare the offer of several banks.

Here are three suggestions among other options that you can look for:
- You can contact Mrs Nesrine Sassine at Société Générale Paris Champs Elysées in order to open an account quickly and easily: nesrine.sassine@socgen.com. She speaks English.
- BNP: Open a bank account at BNP and benefit from the APS partnership! You might be able to get 100€ on your account if you say that you come from APS.
- The post office right across the street is also a bank called La Banque Postale. You can go there and ask for information.

For more information: http://etudiantdeparis.fr/fiche-infospratiques/opening-bank-account

2.2 Healthcare

France offers medical and health services for students, including preventive medicine.

2.2.1 Student’s Social Security (la Sécurité Sociale Etudiante)

To be entitled to the Students Social Security, you must:
- be enrolled in a higher educational institution recognized by the Social Security;
- be less than 28 years of age on October 1st of the academic year that is beginning (this age limit can be postponed in a few cases);
- present a document proving that you have a valid residence permit, visa …

The Social Security refunds 70% of a consultation with a physician and the drugs prescribed by the physician.
It is mandatory for all students under 28 years old (except in a few particular cases).
2.2.2 How to be affiliated?

You don’t have to do it yourself. You will be affiliated to a student's Social Security center at the time of your administrative enrollment. You will pay:

- Tuition fees (around 180€ for undergraduate students and around 250€ for graduate students)
- Social security (around 215€)
- Preventive medicine (around 5€)

For further details and specific cases: http://etudiantdeparis.fr/ressources/health-social-security-securite-sociale

2.2.3 Complementary health insurance

Called “mutuelle” in French, the complementary health insurance covers in many cases the 30% that are not refunded by the Social Security. We strongly recommended that you subscribe to one of these insurances.

To be entitled to it, you must pay an additional fee. After your administrative enrollment is complete you can directly go to the LMDE and SMEREP desk and pay your fee (around 30€).

2.2.4 Reimbursement procedure

During a doctor’s visit, a patient usually pays for the cost of the examination and is then reimbursed by the social security system and the student’s complementary health insurance company.

Depending on the situation, the social security can either reimburse everything or only a part of it.

You may go in person to the social security or send the request for reimbursement by post. Charges are usually reimbursed within 15 days to one month.

Use this website to find the address of the social security center of your area:
www.ameli.fr/assures/votre-caisse/index.php

The “carte vitale” is free of charge and is used by doctors and pharmacists to transmit requests for reimbursement electronically to the social security system. Charges are then reimbursed within a few days only. But you can only apply to a carte vitale once you have a definitive social security number (during the 1st year you will have a temporary one).

For hospital care, hospitals apply the “tiers payant”. It is a third party payer system that only charges the part that is not reimbursed by the social security system.

The part not reimbursed by the social security system is called the “ticket modérateur”. Some pharmacies apply the same system.

Details of benefiting from the “tiers payant” system can be obtained from the insurance company.
Depending on the level of coverage you chose with your mutuelle, you will either:

- Pay the total and get reimbursed the totality
- Pay a part and get reimbursed
- Pay nothing

2.2.5 Access to healthcare

There are two categories of doctors:

- General practitioners are doctors who take care of all types of health problem, such as: sore throats, strains, gastroenteritis and rheumatism.
- Specialists are doctors who are specialized in a certain field such as Obstetricians, ophthalmologists, neuro-psychiatrists, etc.

Doctors charge more for night-time examinations, on Sundays, during the holidays and for visits at your house.

NB. Always ask in advance if you need to pay a part or if you are fully covered. Situations can vary.

2.2.6 Pharmacies

Pharmacies have the monopoly for selling drugs. They are usually open from 8 am till 8 pm and they close on Sundays (some of them close on Monday too).

When a chemist is closed, the addresses of the nearest chemists on duty are displayed on the door.

Pharmacists cannot sell you any kind of drugs. Some drugs are only available with a prescription from the doctor.

In the table below you can find a list of pharmacies that open 24/7:

For your information

- The French-British Hospital Institute (3 rue Barbès, 92300 Levallois-Perret métro: Anatole France) offers surgery, almost all types of consultation as well as a maternity. It has a high percentage of nurses, and qualified doctors from Great Britain. It is partially subsidized by the French State.

The practice prices are thus normal prices, but because of its semi-private character, Social Security does not directly take care of your expenses. You have to pay everything at first and then ask your Social Security to pay you its part.

- The clinic of the American Hospital of Paris provides a medical and surgical emergency service 24 hours a day. The whole team is bilingual. These practitioners can call specialists accredited by the hospital. In any case, there is always a cardiologist and intensive care doctor on duty at the American hospital.

2.3 Public transportation: travelling around Paris, travelling in France or Europe

2.3.1 Metro, train, bus, RER, trams

You can also download the RATP or City mapper application on your smartphone.

A detailed map of the Metro and RER lines are found on http://www.ratp.fr/plan-interactif/

In order to move around using the public transport network you need to buy a ticket or to buy a “Navigo” pass which is a transport card. You can pay either every week, every month or every year. It is very helpful since it gives you unlimited access to the bus, tramway, RER and Metro.

You can get this pass in every RATP office that you will find in the big metro stations such as Montparnasse, Saint Lazare, Gare du Nord, Gare de Lyon, Châtelet les Halles etc.

You can also do it online but it can take a while to receive it.

NAVIGO can take up to 1 MONTH to arrive by mail at your French address.

It is imperative to put a photo on your pass otherwise you’ll receive a fine.

Navigo Pass For students below the age of 26

At the beginning of the academic year, students below the age of 26 can apply for an ‘imagine R’ transport card.

You will need to have the ImagineR application stamped by the registrar’s office.

To subscribe you can also go to any RATP office situated in any metro station get the application, fill it up and send it by post along with the required documents.
2.3.2 Velib’

If you prefer to use a bike, Paris has Velib’ stations everywhere. You can get a Velib’ one-year pass if you have a French bank account. If you don’t need a yearly pass, it is possible to rent a bike for one day or one week using a foreign bankcard also. In this case, follow the instructions at any Velib’ station.

Tip: the first 30 minutes of each journey are free so go on short rides and return your Velib’ before the 30 minutes end.

NB. It is better to know the area before venturing with a bicycle in Paris due to heavy traffic in the city.

2.3.3 Taxis

The most famous companies are:

Taxi G7: 01 47 39 47 39 (English 01 41 27 66 99) or https://www.g7.fr/en/

Taxis Bleus: 3609 or https://taxis-bleus.com/fr/

Uber: you can always UBER around Paris. You need to download the application on your smartphone and open an account. The prices are cheaper than taxis and the drivers are usually reliable.

For more information: https://www.uber.com/fr/cities/paris/

2.3.4 Telephone and internet

- Internet is available everywhere and the cost is usually included in the rental price (you must check with the landlord). In other cases you may have to establish an Internet connection at your own cost with the consent of your landlord. There are many internet providers in France (Free, SFR, Orange, Numéricable, Bouygues Télécom, etc.) that offer competitive subscription packages. For more information you need to visit their websites.

- Telephone: You can find different types of telephone operators such as:

  Bouygues: https://www.bouyguestelecom.fr/

  La Poste Mobile: https://www.lapostemobile.fr/

  Each of them offer a different package, for more details check the respective website.
NB. There are some low cost and commitment free-operators. Among them: Free, Red by SFR, Sosh by Orange, etc.

2.7 Homesickness

The decision to study at Paris Descartes University brings the opportunity to make new friends, to expand your academic knowledge, and to change your existing view of the world. But in common with any major transition, it also brings challenges. Feeling homesick can be one of them, even if you’ve already lived abroad. It is one of the emotional states that can be a part of what is known as culture shock.

Homesickness is a common experience for international students who have left home for the first time. It can affect people in different forms: e.g. coming in waves, or slowly building up over time. Sometimes it seems more like a physical illness, e.g. feeling tired, unwell, or lacking in energy. It can appear when you’re not expecting it, for example, when things have gone well. The trigger in this case can be having no one really close or special with whom to share the experience.

2.7.1 Symptoms of homesickness can include:

- Feeling down-hearted, tearful or anxious
- Feeling lost or lonely
- Longing and grief for your former life
- Being unable to stop contacting people at home
- Being absent-minded, or finding it difficult to concentrate
- Feeling unwell
- Brooding on the past

2.7.2 Common triggers may include:

- When the ‘honeymoon period’ has worn off, i.e. Paris no longer seems wonderful or exciting
- When you have doubts about your decision to study here
- When the demands of your course have become more real, and your self-confidence is affected
- If the local culture feels confusing, unwelcoming, or just too different
- If you miss a major celebration, holiday or important event that is happening at home
- When a crisis occurs and your parents, friends or partner aren’t there to provide help and support
- If friends leave Paris, or if you spend long periods of time here when others have gone back home

Homesickness

There may be other causes, depending on your particular circumstances. But the most important thing to remember is that homesickness is normal. Be patient with yourself as you adjust. Try to accept that feeling comfortable in Paris will take some time. It helps if you can encourage yourself, and if you can remember that you are not alone in feeling this way.

2.7.3 Things you can do to cope with homesickness:

- Leave your room

It can be tempting to seek the security of your own space, but don’t hide in your room for too long. Reach out to others. Invite people for a cup of tea or coffee, or for a meal. Go into town, for a walk by the river, or see a movie. Don’t be afraid to talk about your experience of homesickness, but try to stay positive.
• Consider how much time you spend in contact with the people back home

If you keep in touch infrequently, you’ll miss the support that you crave from the people who are important to you. But if you rely on them too much, you may risk becoming overly-dependent. Try to strike a reasonable balance to get the best of both worlds, with the aim of developing a new sense of your own independence.

• Do something

Meeting up with others from your own culture can be an antidote to loneliness, and an essential source of comfort. But it’s equally important to leave your comfort zone from time to time. The opportunities in Cambridge are many and varied–get involved, and get busy! Join a student society, play a sport, volunteer, try a new type of food. Attend one of the many performances, lectures, and events that regularly take place across the University and Colleges.

• Find a way to process your experiences

Many international students post blogs, keep journals, take photographs, or find other mediums to help them get through times of homesickness and culture shock. A photo journal or blog can become a way of documenting your life in Paris, sharing with others what you experienced, what you’ve learned, and how you faced up to any obstacles along the journey.

• Get out of Paris

Paris has many riches, but it’s still a place that can feel small at times. Escape the ‘Paris Bubble’ to take in some of the glorious sights in France. There are many cities that could be visited for only two hour away (Lyon, Strasbourg, Bordeaux, etc.) and the cities of Europe aren’t very far, either. Plan trips to break up the time, and to reward yourself when you’ve accomplished a goal, or met an important academic deadline.

• If it doesn’t get any easier

If you continue to feel very upset and lonely, or nothing seems to make a difference, consider talking things over in confidence with one of the psychologists at the Paris Descartes SIUMPPS.
